When choosing a mover,
you want the best.

A company built on trust.
The experts.

Our team has been moving families with friendly professionalism for more than a century. We've been around all these years because we keep our word—being on time, treating your possessions with care, and proactively communicating with you—all while exceeding your expectations. Which is why after more than 100 years, we're still the best.

Family business mentality. Big-business expertise.

For many moving companies, you're a number. But not with Stevens.

We see you as a person who's moving their entire life—not just their possessions. And we move you the same way we'd move our own family.

No move is too big—or too small.

Just because we take a personalized approach doesn't mean we can't handle big, complicated relocations. We're one of the largest van lines in the nation, covering more than 95 percent of the United States. We can handle anything from a small apartment move to a complex, large household move. And no matter the size of your move, we offer you great value and state-of-the-art services.

Invested in your best interests.

Stevens is employee-owned, which means everyone on our team has a vested interest in making your move successful. So we do things like provide you with a dedicated move manager to guide you every step of the way. And we stick to our word when it comes to delivery: With an on-time delivery rate of more than 92 percent, we're one of the most dependable and consistent van lines in the industry.

So what separates Stevens from the rest? Our expertise. Our attention to detail. And the way we treat every single move like it is our own.

We see you as a person who's moving their entire life—not just their possessions. And we move you the same way we'd move our own family.

More than moving.

Moving your household possessions from your current home to your new home isn't all we do. We have lots of other helpful services to help your transition go smoothly:

- Professional packing services
- Transportation of specialty items
- Appliance disconnection/connection
- Automobile transportation
- Short- or long-term storage

Protect your move.

Protecting your life's possessions is as important to us as it is to you. And we know that you want the peace of mind of being covered in the rare case that something is lost or damaged—which is why we offer a variety of options to meet your needs.

- Limited Liability Protection: We provide limited liability protection for all of your belongings, which is based on the weight of each article.
 - For example, if you have a cabinet that weighs 200 pounds that was lost or damaged, and you have elected the coverage option of $0.60 per pound per article, the carrier's maximum liability for replacement or repair would be $120.
- Full Replacement Value Protection: If you want more protection, or have high-value items, we also offer a full replacement value option.
 - Full replacement value protection covers the full repair, reimbursement cost or replacement of lost or damaged items, whichever is less.

To learn more about valuation and protection,

The most experience. The best value.

Your Stevens agent will give you an accurate estimate of the cost of your move based on three factors:

- The weight of your household possessions.
- The distance of the move from origin to destination.
- The services and protection options you choose.

We're confident that we offer our customers the best value in the business. So if you can find a mover with a price lower than us, be skeptical—and make sure you compare every aspect of the moving quotes, including:

- Weight estimates
- Distance traveled
- Levels of service and protection

Stevens is one of the most trusted movers in the United States. After more than 100 years of providing fair and honest estimates, you can rest assured there won't be any unexpected surprises at the end of your move.

A network of experts.

Stevens has a network of 390 agents throughout the United States who have been carefully selected from local moving companies across the nation. These agents are licensed to do both in-state and interstate moves. And in many cases, our agents have been moving the same families for generations.

- When a move takes places across state lines—known as “interstate” moving—Stevens is the van line affiliated with your local agent.
 - Because interstate moves are complex and carefully regulated by the government, only accredited van lines with proper authority are able to conduct them.
 - That’s where Stevens comes in—in fact, we were the first carrier in the nation to hold interstate moving authority for all 50 states by the U.S. Interstate Commerce Commission.

Stevens has the country covered—which means there’s almost certainly a Stevens agent close to your home. Find out today at stevensworldwide.com.

Friendly. Professional. Experts.
